

The Bovingdon Players

---

Newsletter – January 2010

---

Moonshine

Bovingdon - 12th & 13th March

Hertford Festival - 23rd March

Thurrock Festival – To be confirmed

The cast for our next production is now complete, well almost (see below) and rehearsals have begun enthusiastically. You will see some familiar names in the list below as well as some new members who we welcome to the group!

McKeever	- Mark Waghorn
Michael	- Sean Chalkwright
Rev Langton	- Iain King
Bridget	- Tiffani Vinyard
Griffin	- Terry Casserley
Elizabeth	- Claire Sharp
Margaret	- To be cast

Margaret, Elizabeth's mother, is a corpse and appears in two scenes, ideally she is a 'mature' woman. No lines to learn or moves to remember!

There are still a number of backstage duties to be allocated – Producer, right-hand 'person'/Director's assistant, props, music, publicity (of course anyone who could double as 'the deceased' would be most welcome!)

Do you have a shed, garage or loft full of interesting things? We are looking for: A hospital trolley, a church organ, a coffin and a bowler hat!

To get involved or for more information please get in touch with Stewart Woodward (Director) 01442 240674 stewart\_woodward@westbrookhay.co.uk

---

Murder Mystery – May 2010

Robert Peacock will be directing a Murder Mystery production, proceeds of which will be donated to The Memorial Hall as our contribution to the fundraising for planned hall improvements. More details will follow in the next newsletter

---

Did you know?

The Bovingdon Players has a Facebook page! And don't forget to look at the website too!

---